

2x Offshore Cabin according EN 13852-1

Definition

Replacement cabin for two offshore cranes.

The main goal of the project was to design and manufacture two cabins in such a way the existing foundation could be preserved, but also would be fully compliant with the latest laws and regulations.

The result where two plug and play cabins which where quickly mounted and installed successfully at open sea.

Project characteristics;

- design and production according to EN 13852 1
- RFOU cabling
- Integrated electrical switch room, separated by door
- central control unit with joystick consoles
- comfort control from the control unit
- Ex heating system
- preparation for a roof mounted ATEX air conditioning installation
- walk able roof with railing and accessible by cage ladder
- emergency exit hatch
- sliding door system, designed for heavy maritime environment
- special window wash installation for works in a maritime environment
- paint system according to the severe marine standard ISO 12944 C5M/H

